

ARE YOU SMARTER THAN A 5TH GRADER?

1. What does L.I.N.K.S. stand for?
2. Who are your LINKS missionaries?
3. What is a LINKS cash assignment?
4. What is the most important thing you can do for your LINKS missionaries?
5. On what specific occasions could you remember them?
6. What month is specifically designated for remembering LINKS?
7. What can you do other than send in your LINKS cash assignment?
8. Are LINKS missionaries retired or active?
9. Why is LINKS so important?
10. Are LINKS missionaries men or women?

INSTRUCTIONS:

This fun and entertaining game can be used to educate your congregation about LINKS and to get children, youth, and adults involved! With a panel of children (prepared with the correct answers) to go up against a few chosen adults, this game tests your congregation's knowledge of LINKS. It could be used during a Mission Moment or even as a specific mission lesson during this month when LINKS is emphasized

Who will be the winning
LINK-expert?

Yvette Bourne
Mission Connection Children's Editor

Answers: 1. Loving, Interested Nazarenes Knowing and Sharing, 2. This changes from church to church. Contact your local NMI president to find out who your LINKS missionaries are, 3. Money your church donates specifically for your LINKS missionaries, 4. Pray, 5. Holidays, Birthdays, Anniversaries, etc., 6. August, 7. Send cards, gifts, emails, etc., 8. Both, 9. LINKS gives each church an opportunity to become personally acquainted with the missionary family and their field of service, 10. Both